In an Order dated July 30, 2020, the Court granted defendant Ed Rivera's motion for compassionate release and ordered him released after the completion of a 14-day quarantine period. Dkt. No. 50. The government has since filed a response to that Order, proposing an alternative route to Mr. Rivera's release, and Mr. Rivera has filed a reply "agree[ing] with the essence of the Government's suggested resolution[.]" without conceding there was any error in the Court's prior Order and clarifying that under the government's proposal there would be no additional Parole for Mr. Rivera to serve. Dkt. Nos. 59, 60.

Accordingly, the Court RESCINDS its prior Order (Dkt. No. 50). The Court modifies Mr. Rivera's sentence of imprisonment on Case No. 00-cr-0477-SI to 55 months and 26 days, leading to a release date of August 8, 2004. The sentence under Case No. 84-cr-0022-SC would commence on that same day (August 8, 2004), which would result in a release date of August 10, 2020. Mr. Rivera's 3 years of supervised release on Case No. 00-cr-0477-SI shall begin effective on the date of his release from FCI Lompoc and shall be subject to the normal supervised release conditions.¹ As stated in defendant's reply brief, Dkt.  8 from FCI Lompoc forthwith.

9 The status conference set for August 27, 2020 at 11:00 am remains on calendar, for Mr.
 10 Rivera to provide an update to the Court regarding his housing and employment situation.

 26 initial 30-day time period, counsel and Probation would work with Mr. Rivera to find a space in a 27 transitional housing program where he could also obtain vocational services. Mr. Rivera would 28 remain on supervised release for three years subject to all of the normal conditions, and the Probation Officer would have the discretion to place Mr. Rivera in a halfway house for up to 6 months. The government stated that these conditions allayed its concerns and were acceptable. The Court finds that these conditions are appropriate, and the Court commends the Probation Officer for her work on this case and in securing the housing vouchers.
